Silent Procession to the Christmas Creche

Station at the Creche

V. The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us:

R. And we beheld His glory.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, you have given us a new revelation of your loving providence in the Coming of your Son Jesus Christ to be born of the Virgin Mary: Grant that as He shared our mortality, so we may share His eternity in the glory of your kingdom; where He lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Opening Hymn (1982 Hymnal #100) “Joy to the World”

Opening Acclamation Please remain standing as you are able.

Celebrant: ✕ Bles - sed be God: Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Spirit.

Community: And bles - sed be his Kingdom, now and for e - ver. A - men.

Collect for Purity

The Celebrant may say:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Celebrant:

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Celebrant:

Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

First Lesson (Isaiah 9:2-7)

Louis Durham

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness--
 on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,
 as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
 and the bar across their shoulders,
 the rod of their oppressor,
 you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
 a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
 and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually,
 and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
 He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Psalm 96 (read responsively by verse)

- 1 Sing to the LORD a new song; *sing to the LORD, all the whole earth.
- 2 Sing to the LORD and bless his Name; *proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his glory among the nations *and his wonders among all peoples.
- 4 For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; *he is more to be feared than all gods.
- 5 As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *but it is the LORD who made the heavens.
- 6 Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!
- 7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples; *ascribe to the LORD honor and power.
- 8 Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name; *bring offerings and come into his courts.
- 9 Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; *let the whole earth tremble before him.
- 10 Tell it out among the nations: "The LORD is King! *he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea thunder and all that is in it; * let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the LORD when he comes, *when he comes to judge the earth.

13 He will judge the world with righteousness * and the peoples with his truth.

Second Lesson (Titus 2:11-14)

Kevin Sangster

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to Titus.

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2:1-20

Deacon ✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Homily

Fr. Russell A. Griffin, SSC

The Nicene Creed

(Please stand as you are able: all say together)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection ☩ of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Dcn. Bruce Cecchini

The Celebrant says:

“To you is born a Savior who is Christ the Lord.” Our heavenly Father has caused this night to shine with the illumination of the true Light. Celebrating the Incarnation of Christ that brings grace and salvation, let us place before God our needs and those of the whole world saying, Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon and people read responsively:

For the leaders of the Church, that through their work they may continue to spread the Good News of our Savior.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all members of the Church throughout the world, that they may share the joy of this holy night, and rejoice in the light of faith.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all mothers, that they may follow the good example of blessed Mary, who so lovingly welcomed the infant Christ into her life.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For our community, especially parents and children, that all families may appreciate the true spirit of Christmas.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the special intentions which we offer before God's throne of Grace, as we pray for:

- Joe, our President; Donald, our President-elect; Phil, our Governor; and Rick, our Mayor.
- All Missionaries throughout the world.
- The persecuted Church throughout the world.
- Our troops serving at home and abroad.
- All expectant mothers and their unborn children.

- All those who are sick and suffering, especially Richard and William Luebberman.
- The victims of crime in our communities.
- The victims of natural and environmental disasters.
- Those nations engaged in wars and suffering from the devastation in the wake of conflicts.
- Our family and friends celebrating birthdays, especially Carol Abrams, Daysia McCaully, Jack Gainer, and Paige Gainer.
- For our absent brothers and sisters.

The people are invited to add their own intercessions either silently or aloud.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the souls all who shared our Christmas joy in times past, that they may come to eternal glory, especially [N].

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

Let us pray together for the Good Shepherd Church Family:

Almighty and everliving God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth, hear our prayers for the Church family of Good Shepherd. Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent. Grant us all things necessary for our common life, and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant:

Heavenly Father, upon the deep darkness of the world, shine the light of your countenance so that with the Blessed Virgin Mary and blessed Joseph, our hearts may exult and sing for joy at the incarnation of the Savior. Mindful of your great Gift, we confidently place our needs before you, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Hymn (1982 Hymnal #83)

“O Come All Ye Faithful”

Please stand as you are able.

The Offering of the Bread

*The Celebrant takes the bread to be consecrated and places it on the corporal.
The following may be said:*

Celebrant Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the Bread of Life.

People Blessed be God for ever.

The Offering of the Wine

The Celebrant takes the wine to be consecrated and places it on the corporal.

The following may be said:

Celebrant Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to offer, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become for us our spiritual drink.

People Blessed be God for ever.

The Celebrant may address the community with these words.

Celebrant: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my Sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

People: May the Lord receive the Sacrifice at your hands, to the praise and glory of His Name, both to our benefit, and that of all His holy Church.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer D

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant proceeds:

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing:

Sanctus and Benedictus (Martin Haugen – Mass of Creation)

(sung together)

The musical score is written on four staves in a single system. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first line of music corresponds to the lyrics: "Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly Lord God of hosts. Heav-en and". The second line continues: "earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est." The third line continues: "Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-". The fourth line concludes: "san-na in the high-est. Ho-san-na in the high - est." The score ends with a double bar line.

The people stand or kneel. Celebrant continues:

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, He lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor He proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose He gave Himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for Him who died and rose for us, He sent the Holy Spirit, His own first gift for those who believe, to complete His work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for Him to be glorified by you, His heavenly Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end; at supper with them He took bread, and when He had given thanks to you, He broke it, and gave it to His disciples, and said, "Take eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ✠

After supper He took the cup of wine; and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and His descent among the dead, proclaiming His resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting His coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People:

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord God.

Celebrant

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy Catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Francis, the Bishop of Rome; Bartholomew, the Patriarch of Constantinople; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Sally, our Bishop, and all who minister in your Church.

Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.

Remember all who have died ✠ in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; blessed Joseph her spouse, your blessed patriarchs, prophets, apostles and martyrs, Thomas, Stephen, the Holy Innocents, John, and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

The Blessing

Celebrant blesses the congregation.

May Almighty God, who sent his Son to take our nature upon him, bless you in this holy season, scatter the darkness of sin, and brighten your heart with the light of his holiness. Amen.

May God, who sent his angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior’s birth, fill you with joy, and make you heralds of the Gospel. Amen.

May God, who in the Word made flesh joined heaven to earth and earth to heaven, give you his peace and favor. Amen.

May our blessed Lady, Saint Joseph, and all the saints pray for you. And the blessing of God Almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Celebrant ✠ The Beginning of the Holy Gospel according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through Him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light. The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, yet the world knew Him not. He came to His own home, and His own people received Him not. But to all who received Him, who believed in His name, He gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; and we have beheld His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.
